CONCERT COMMENTS REGISTRATION

DAYTON, Ohio, January 17, 1980 — People who want to better appreciate the music of future concerts in the Dayton area can register now for Concert Comments, a class offered through Special Sessions at the University of Dayton. Classes are taught by Dr. Julane Rodgers and are held the Tuesday before each event at 7:00 P.M. The first session, January 22, will be devoted to Verdi's Don Carlo, a January 26 performance by the Dayton Opera Association. For each class, concert excerpts will be discussed and illustrated, often by live performers.

Other winter concerts the UD course will review are the Camerata Players (February 10); the Early Music Consort (performance February 23 sponsored by the Vanguard Association); and the Dayton Philharmonic (February 27 and 28).

Spring term concerts are the Canadian Brass (a UD Arts Series Concert on March 12); the Dayton Philharmonic (March 26 and 27); UD pianist Hyung Bae Kim (April 16); and the Dayton Bach Society Bach-Fest (April 25 and 27).

Registration fee for an entire semester's worth of "Comments" is $12. For brochures on the course and to register, call 229-2347.
