APPLICATIONS FOR MODEL UN
ACCEPTED FOR NOVEMBER CONFERENCE

DAYTON, Ohio, October 3, 1980 --- Applications are being accepted for the High School Model United Nations Conference to be held at the University of Dayton on November 20. This annual conference, sponsored by the University of Dayton Model United Nations Club, is designed and run by college students. Through participation in the conference students can develop skills in diplomacy and persuasion and can gain insight into the barriers of and channels to successful interaction in the world community.

Topics such as disarmament, racial discrimination, terrorism and Palestine will be among the subjects discussed. Students participating in the conference represent specific countries in caucus and debate, drafting resolutions and dealing with many diverse and challenging international issues. Because there will be five UN bodies simulated at the conference, schools can send several delegates.

Registration for the conference is 15 dollars for the first nation assignment and 5 dollars for each additional nation assignment. The fee should accompany the application. Information and applications can be obtained by calling Linda Hoffman at (513) 461-6215 or Dr. Margaret Karns at (513) 229-3538. Earlier applications will have priority in nation assignments.
