DAYTON, Ohio, September 30, 1981 -- The University of Dayton Office for Moral and Religious Education is offering a Church Leadership Institute on Thursday evenings beginning October 1 and continuing through October 29 from 7 to 9 p.m. in Kennedy Union 211.

The Institute will attempt to develop greater awareness for creative responsibility in parish leaders by addressing the need for parish management skills, parish planning, dealing with change and stress, communication skills, working with parish volunteers and defining one's theology of Church. It is designed especially for pastors, parish council leaders, parish chairpersons, directors of religious education, principals and committee organizers.

Continuing Education Units (CEU's) from the University of Dayton and Certification Units (CU's) from the Archdiocesan Religious Education Office will be offered for completion of the course. A basic evaluation project is required for fulfillment of this course for credit.

The course will be offered again in January. For more information, call The Office for Moral and Religious Education, 229-4327.
