DAYTON, Ohio, November 30, 1981 -- Bro. Walter Hausfeld, S.M., died Saturday evening, November 28, at the Gosiger Health Center on the campus of the University of Dayton. He was born in Dayton, July 16, 1897, and entered the Society of Mary in 1914, professing vows on August 15 of that year. As a Marianist, he spent the greater part of his life teaching in various schools of the Society in New York, Brooklyn, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Mineola, Philadelphia, Marcy, N.Y., and in California for eighteen years. In addition to his work as teacher, he spent a considerable amount of time engaged in all sorts of maintenance work in the different places he was assigned. His was a particularly active life until 1979 when declining health forced him to retire to the religious community in Tempe, Arizona. In December 1980, when his condition required additional care and treatment, he was transferred to the Gosiger Health Center at the University of Dayton. He is survived by a number of nephews and nieces.

The viewing will take place on Tuesday, December 1, from 4 to 7 p.m., with the Mass of Christian Burial being offered at 7:30 p.m., both in the Alumni Hall Chapel of the religious community at the University of Dayton. Burial will take place on Wednesday morning, December 2, at 10 a.m. in the Queen of Heaven Cemetery on the grounds of Mount St. John/Bergamo, Dayton.
