UDCAG SPONSORS CONCERT TO BENEFIT APPALACHIAN PROJECT

DAYTON, Ohio, March 15, 1990--Fourteen local musicians, including jazz, blues, country, bluegrass, rock and folk artists, will perform at the "Walks of Life Music Fest," a concert at the University of Dayton's Baujan Field, on Saturday, March 31, from 1 to 10 p.m.

The concert, which presents a cross-cultural perspective, will benefit the Appalachian project run by the University of Dayton Community Action Group (UDCAG). The concert is part of the group's effort to raise $40,000 to send 12 students to Appalachia this summer.

Since 1969, UD students have spent summers living and working among the people of Salyersville in Kentucky's Magoffin County. Through UDCAG's Appalachia Club, the students sponsor tutoring sessions for children, run an evening recreation program for teens and visit area nursing home residents.

Musicians will include Canal Street Tavern owner Mick Montgomery, Sharon Lane and Michael Kotur, Greg Tarr, Greg Spense, the Kiljoys, Hangin Pride, Winter Street and Mario DeStefano.

Admission is $5; children under 10 get in free. Since the event will be outdoors, people should bring chairs or blankets. Refreshments will be available.
