Dayton Bach Society's 1990-91 Season Includes Concerts to Honor Mozart
DAYTON, Ohio, April 20, 1990--The Dayton Bach Society, under the direction of Richard Benedum, professor of music at the University of Dayton, has announced plans for the 1990-91 season, including several performances in honor of the 200th anniversary of the birth of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.

The first concert will feature J.S. Bach's "Christmas Oratorio" on Nov. 11, and a traditional Christmas concert will be performed on Dec. 9 and 16.

On Feb. 22 and 24, the music of Mozart will be highlighted in a performance of one of his several "Missa brevis" settings written for the Archbishop of Salzburg. The concert will include additional chamber music.

The March 17 performance will feature Johannes Brahms' "New Love-Song Waltzes" as well as settings of William Shakespeare texts by George Shearing. The season will close with a performance of Mozart's "Mass in C Minor", K. 427 ("the Great"), in honor of the 200th anniversary of his birth.

In addition, the Bach Society hopes to bring Viennese forte-pianist Richard Fuller to Dayton to perform a special concert of Mozart's music on the forte-piano, the type of piano that Mozart would have known and for which he would have written.

Season ticket information for the 1990-91 season is available from Diane Gentner, general manager, by calling (513) 254-4303.

-30-

OFFICE OF PUBLIC RELATIONS
300 College Park   Dayton, Ohio 45469-0001   (513) 229-3241