GRAND TRADITION PRESENTED IN UD THEATRE PRODUCTION OF 'THE MUSIC MAN'

DAYTON, Ohio--Professor Harold Hill will once again sell "Seventy-Six Trombones," tell River City townspeople their "Trouble" and win the heart of "Marian the Librarian" when the University of Dayton presents Meredith Wilson's "The Music Man." Performances will be March 14-16 and 21-23.

"This show has all the makings of a wonderful, traditional musical," said Dr. Patrick Gilvary, UD theatre professor and director of the production. "There are numerous sets, fabulous costumes, a barbershop quartet and 'a cast of thousands.'"

Senior Dan Simon will portray Harold Hill and junior Sarah Porretta will play Marian Paroo. Junior Kevin Sexton will portray Mayor Shinn, junior Rose Drance will play Mrs. Paroo, sophomore Rachel Sacksteder will portray Eulalie Mackecknie Shinn and junior Jason Siefert will play Marcellus Washburn.

"The Music Man" will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on campus. General admission tickets are $5, and the box office will be open beginning March 1 from noon to 5 p.m. To reserve tickets and for more information, call (513) 229-2545 or 229-3950
