FAITH IN ACTION MEETING
WILL INCLUDE CHURCH LEADERS

DAYTON, Ohio -- The University of Dayton's Faith in Action, an interfaith fellowship of physically disabled adults, will meet from 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. Sunday, April 7, at the South Park United Methodist Church, 140 Stonemill Road. Marilyn Bishop, the director of Ministry with Disabled People at UD, will speak on "Building Inclusive Communities Within Our Churches."

Each participant is asked to bring one leader from their parish—a pastor, assistant pastor, director of religious education, outreach worker or lay minister. Cathy Schneider, the project coordinator for Faith in Action, notes, "Changes in attitude must coincide with church architectural design in order for people with disabilities to feel they can participate in church life. Our church leaders can help us achieve such changes."

Faith in Action was established in 1981 to respond to the spiritual needs of disabled people. "Our 10-year anniversary is a perfect time to remind ourselves of its primary purpose: for participants to take what they've learned back into their own parishes," says Bishop.

Refreshments will be served, and a $1 donation is requested. For more information, contact Cathy Schneider or Ross Maguire at 229-4356.
