UD FACULTY MEMBER WINS
TEACHING EXCELLENCE AWARD

DAYTON, Ohio -- William F. Lewis, associate professor of marketing at the University of Dayton, has been selected as a winner of the 1990-91 Sears-Roebuck Foundation Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership Award.

A Kettering resident, Lewis has been a UD faculty member since 1980. He is one of approximately 700 faculty members recognized nationally by the Sears-Roebuck Foundation for resourcefulness and leadership as an independent college educator.

Each award winner receives $1,000, and the institution receives a grant ranging from $500 to $1,500 based on student enrollment. Winners are selected by independent committees on each campus.

A graduate of Spring Arbor College, Mich., Lewis earned an M.B.A. at Michigan State University and a doctorate at the University of Cincinnati.
