Upcoming: UD Students Volunteer Week of Summer Vacation to Serve Needy Communities in Four States
APRIL 26-MAY 5: UD STUDENTS VOLUNTEER WEEK OF SUMMER VACATION TO SERVE NEEDY COMMUNITIES IN FOUR STATES

Taking the University of Dayton's commitment to service to heart, four groups of UD students will spend the first week of their summer vacation serving others.

Sister Nancy Bramlage, S.C., director of UD's peace, justice and social outreach office, is coordinating the trips. The University is providing vans and gasoline for the trips, and each group will load the vans and leave from behind Liberty Hall on campus. For more information, contact Sister Nancy Bramlage at (513) 229-2576.

IN THE BRONX -- Ten UD students will stay at the Christian Brothers residence at 365 E. 150 St., Bronx, N.Y., from Saturday, April 27, to Saturday, May 4. They will work on neighborhood development projects, such as preparing a camp for inner-city kids to attend this summer, preparing community gardens and tutoring community members. The Christian Brothers residence may be contacted by calling (212) 665-1133.

WEST VIRGINIA SERVICE -- A group of 12 UD students will be roughing it at Nazareth Farm in Center Point, W.Va., working with the Association of Volunteers for Christian Service Sunday, April 28, through Saturday, May 4. The students, while living in somewhat primitive conditions, will help rehabilitate houses in the area by constructing room additions, painting and roofing. Nazareth Farm may be contacted by calling (304) 782-2742.

HISPANIC OUTREACH IN TOLEDO -- Six to eight UD students will travel to Toledo to work with Sister Estella Ebarra, F.M.I., in her ministry with Hispanic community members and migrant workers Friday, April 26, through Thursday, May 2. The students may also help paint and clean a new shelter for single men in the parish that the Marianist Sisters community is preparing. The community residence is located at 230 Maumee in Toledo. Contact Sister Estella Ebarra at (419) 255-3802.

HOUSING NEEDS IN NEW JERSEY -- Between six and nine UD students will help construct homes for low-income families when they travel to Trenton, N.J., to work with the Martin House Marianist community. The trip is tentatively planned for Tuesday, April 30, through Sunday, May 5. The Martin House community is located at 802 E. State St. in Trenton and may be reached by calling (609) 989-8143.

For further information or assistance in scheduling interviews, contact Office of Public Relations, (513) 229-3241.