DAYTON, Ohio -- University of Dayton faculty members Linda June Snyder and Richard Chenoweth will perform "An Evening of Music for Voice and Horn," the program they plan to present at Carnegie Hall's Weill Recital Hall, at 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 14, in Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on campus. The New York performance will be at 8 p.m. Wednesday, May 22, at Carnegie Hall.

Admission to the UD performance is free and open to the public. Tickets to the Carnegie Hall concert are $10 and will be available at its box office two weeks prior to the concert.

Soprano Snyder and French hornist Chenoweth will be accompanied by Phillip Farris of the Cincinnati Opera. The program will include the world premiere of a work by Ohio composer Steven Winteregg that is based on three poems from "City of Steel" by Carl Sandberg, "Eleventh Avenue Racket," "The Skyscraper Loves Nights" and "Honky-Tonk in Cleveland."

Also on the program will be works by Wilhelm Friedmann Bach, Gaetano Donizetti, Hector Berlioz, Richard Strauss, Franz Lachner, Conrad Kreutzer, Donald Busarow, Peggy Glanville-Hicks and Vitaly Buyanovsky.

Snyder, chair of the music department at UD, is an associate professor of voice. A Washington Township resident, she was associate professor of voice and director of vocal studies at New York University prior to coming to Dayton. She made her debut at Merkin Concert Hall in New York and has been a featured performer at the International Congress on Women in Music. She has performed throughout the United States and Italy, including performances with the Dayton Opera, Opera/Omaha, Colorado Music Theatre and the Illinois Opera. Her students include winners of the Metropolitan Opera National Auditions and the National Association of Teachers of Singing competitions, and they are active in national and regional opera companies and Broadway musicals.

Chenoweth, assistant professor of music at UD and a resident of Washington Township, is co-principal horn with the Dayton Philharmonic Orchestra, hornist with the Carillon Brass and has performed with the Santa Fe Opera for 19 years. He was the first hornist to be awarded the doctor of musical arts degree from the University of Cincinnati College-Conservatory of Music. Prior to coming to Dayton, Chenoweth performed with the Royal Ballet of London and the Little Orchestra Society of New York.

For more information on the concert, call UD's music department at (513) 229-3936.
