5-7-1991

Ohio History Academy Honors UD Professor

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation
https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/7159

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.
OHIO HISTORY ACADEMY
HONORS UD PROFESSOR

DAYTON, Ohio -- Roberta Alexander Fost, professor and chair of the history department at the University of Dayton, has received the 1991 Ohio Academy of History Outstanding Teacher Award.

The award is made annually in recognition of outstanding performance in the teaching of history.

A resident of Fairfield, Ohio, Alexander has been an educator for 21 years, the past eight as department chair. A graduate of UCLA, she also holds master's and doctor's degrees from the University of Chicago. She specializes in the history of U.S. law and the Constitution and serves as the advisor for pre-law students at UD.

She has also received a 1990 Sears-Roebuck Foundation Teaching Excellence and Campus Leadership Award and a 1991 University of Dayton Alumni Award for Teaching.

She and her husband, Ron Fost, have lived in Fairfield for the past 14 years.

-30

For media interviews, call Roberta Alexander at 229-2848.