UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON JAZZ ENSEMBLE TO PERFORM NOVEMBER 13 ON CAMPUS

DAYTON, Ohio -- The University of Dayton Jazz Ensemble, under the direction of director of jazz studies David Hoffman, will perform a concert at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 13, in the Kennedy Union Boll Theatre on campus. The concert is free and open to the public.

The performance will feature a variety of jazz and big band selections including "Long Summer Nights" from the David Metzger library and "Basie Straight Ahead" from the Sammy Nestico library.

Featured student musicians include trumpeter Joe Koppel and saxophonist Angela Girton in a tribute to Miles Davis.

"Part of the concert is going to be a tribute to the late, great Miles Davis," Hoffman said. "We feature a Davis standard, 'All Blues,' and a Gil Evans arrangement of 'The Maids of Cadiz.' It should be a show all jazz fans can enjoy."

For more information on the performance, call the UD music department at (513) 229-3936.
