DAYTON BACH SOCIETY TO PRESENT HOLIDAY PERFORMANCES DEC. 15

DAYTON, Ohio -- The Dayton Bach Society will present two performances of music for the holiday season at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, at the Renaissance Auditorium of the Dayton Art Institute and at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 15, at the Kettering Seventh-day Adventist Church, 1131 Stroop Road. General admission is $9 and student tickets are $5.

Each performance will feature a mixture of both new and traditional music for the holiday season and will mark the premiere of several carols arranged by Richard Benedum, Dayton Bach Society conductor and professor of music at UD. "I wrote these arrangements specifically with the resources of the Bach Society in mind," Benedum said.

Also premiering at the performances will be a carol written by Phillip Magnuson, a Dayton-area composer and professor of music at UD. The carol's words are derived from a poem by Lewis Carroll. The Kettering Children's Choir will make guest appearances at both concerts.

Tickets for Dayton Bach Society concerts are available at Hauer Music, Strictly Classical, and Wright State University. For more information, call (513) 256-BACH or (513) 873-8101.
