UD'S LINDA SNYDER NAMED TO NATIONAL OPERA ASSOCIATION BOARD

DAYTON, Ohio -- Linda J. Snyder, chair of the music department at the University of Dayton, has been elected to the board of directors of the National Opera Association. Snyder, a resident of Washington Township, also serves on the association's collegiate training committee.

Snyder has served as director/conductor of more than 30 opera and music productions at Illinois Wesleyan University, New York University and Interlochen Center for the Arts in Michigan. She currently directs the Opera Workshop at UD. She has sung roles with Illinois Opera Theatre, Colorado Music Theatre, Opera Omaha and the Dayton Opera.

Members of the National Opera Association include college and professional opera directors. The association promotes the advancement of quality opera in the United States through competitions for singers, composers and producers of opera. It also sponsors scholarships, internships and other educational projects.
