UD LAW STUDENTS TO ASSIST IN INCOME TAX PREPARATION

DAYTON, Ohio -- Students in the School of Law at the University of Dayton are providing free assistance in preparing income tax returns for members of the Dayton community.

The service will be provided through April 15 in the Law Clinic of the School of Law Mondays through Thursdays from 5:30 p.m. to 7 p.m. and on Saturdays from 10 to 11:30 a.m.

No appointments are necessary. The UD School of Law is located on University Circle, off Alberta Avenue.

The service is provided by the students as part of the Volunteer Income Tax Assistance (VITA) program, sponsored by the Internal Revenue Service. For information regarding income qualification, call 229-3802.
