FUTURE SCIENTISTS CAN TAKE A LOOK AT THE UNIVERSITY OF DAYTON

DAYTON, Ohio -- High school students and their parents are invited to "A Day to Discover" science open house at the University of Dayton. The program will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday, March 21, on campus.

Registration will be held from 9 to 9:45 a.m. in the Kennedy Union. Reservations are requested by March 13 by calling (513) 229-3717.

Laboratory demonstrations and experiments will be conducted in department presentations, including biology, chemistry and biochemistry, human ecology, medical technology, physics, premedicine and predental, geology and mathematics.

UD students will discuss academic and personal adjustments to college in a session for high school students. A parents session will cover admission, academic scheduling, residence life, campus ministry and guidance center services. Campus and residence hall tours will be offered.
