SUSAN FOWLER NAMED TO UD DEVELOPMENT POST

DAYTON, Ohio -- Susan Fowler has been named assistant director of major and planned giving at the University of Dayton.

A resident of Oakwood, Ohio, Fowler had been serving as a staff attorney at UD since July 1988.

Fowler received her Juris Doctor degree from the UD Law School in May 1985. Her bachelor of arts degree in political science was received from Southern Methodist University in May 1977. She also holds a bachelor of applied science in criminal justice degree from Southern Methodist.

A member of the American, Ohio, and Dayton bar associations, Fowler also belongs to the Miami Valley Association of Women Attorneys and the Antarctic Society, a group based in Washington D.C. interested in the preservation of Antarctica.
