'AVIATION HERITAGE' HOSTELSHIPS AVAILABLE

DAYTON, Ohio -- Elderhostel scholarships, or hostelships, are still available for the "Aviation Heritage" session slated to be held July 15-20 at the University of Dayton.

"Aviation Heritage" will focus on Dayton as the birthplace of powered flight. Hostellers will visit the Air Force Museum and other sites on the aviation trail. Cost for the program, including room and board on campus and activities throughout the week, is $280. The fee is $140 for commuters.

Elderhostel is an educational program for senior adults who want to continue to expand their horizons and to develop new interests and enthusiasms. Participants enjoy inexpensive short-term academic programs at educational institutions around the world.

For more information about hostelships or the Elderhostel program, contact Julie Yowell at (513) 229-2347.
