

9-28-1998

Best-Selling Author Rabbi Chaim Potok to Speak at UD; Kickball Games Help UD Students Feel Like Kids Again; UD Students Take Rural Retreat to Learn About Life on a Farm; UD Students Sponsor 10K Walk to Help Fight Cancer

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

"Best-Selling Author Rabbi Chaim Potok to Speak at UD; Kickball Games Help UD Students Feel Like Kids Again; UD Students Take Rural Retreat to Learn About Life on a Farm; UD Students Sponsor 10K Walk to Help Fight Cancer" (1998). News Releases. 8971. https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls/8971

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Marketing and Communications at eCommons. It has been accepted for inclusion in News Releases by an authorized administrator of eCommons. For more information, please contact frice1@udayton.edu, mschlangen1@udayton.edu.

SEPT. 28: BEST-SELLING AUTHOR RABBI CHAIM POTOK TO SPEAK AT UD

Rabbi Chaim Potok has written eight novels including best-selling books such as The Gift of Asher Lev, The Promise and The Chosen, which has been made into a movie and musical.

Potok will speak on "Authority and Rebellion: The Writer and the Community" at 8 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 28, in the Kennedy Union Ballroom at the University of Dayton.

Potok, who has also written plays, short stories, articles, children's books and non-fiction books, will have a book signing from 2 to 3 p.m. on Monday, Sept. 28, in the bookstore, located in the lower level of Chaminade Hall.

For more information, call Kathy Duell at (937) 229-4114.

OCT. 2: KICKBALL GAMES HELP UD STUDENTS FEEL LIKE KIDS AGAIN

UD students will forget about their tests and classes and do a little reminiscing about elementary school during a kickball tournament from 5 to 10 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 2, on Founders Field.

About 200 students are expected to take part in the tournament sponsored by Rudy's Fly-Buy, a student-run store. The store will also have a "Taste of Rudy's" event from 3 to 6 p.m. on Founders Field where free samples will be provided.

For more information, call Jamey Lamb at (937) 229-3196

OCT. 2: UD STUDENTS TAKE RURAL RETREAT TO LEARN ABOUT LIFE ON A FARM

About 15 students will learn how to milk a cow and scoop eggs from a chicken coop during a Rural Plunge retreat Friday, Oct. 2, to Sunday, Oct. 4.

The students will be leaving UD at 4:15 p.m. Friday, Oct. 2, from Liberty Hall. They will travel to Minster and Carthegena, Ohio, to get a first-hand look at some of the realities of farm life.

Students will talk to migrant workers and tour small and corporate hog and chicken farms to hear about the farmers' economic and environmental concerns.

For more information, call Brother Phil Aaron, S.M., at (937) 229-2575. During the weekend the students can be reached at St. Charles Seminary at (419) 925-4516.

OCT. 3: UD STUDENTS SPONSOR 10K WALK TO HELP FIGHT CANCER

The University of Dayton's Delta Tau Delta fraternity and Phi Sigma Rho sorority are sponsoring the first Hope Walk for cancer.

The walk will take place at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Oct. 3. The two organizations are asking each participant to raise at least $25 for the American Cancer Society. The walk marks the beginning of Cancer Awareness Month.

Participants will be starting and finishing on UD's campus at Founders Field. The participants will follow a course through campus, and the cities of Oakwood and Kettering.

Registration begins at 9 a.m. on Founders Field, and the walk begins at 10 a.m. The rain site for this event will be in Collins gym in the Physical Activities Center at the University.

After the two-hour walk, the participants will enjoy a free lunch, live entertainment and prizes for the top fund-raisers.

For more information, call Jenn Droesch at (937) 285-8519.