NEWS TIPS

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8: ASH WEDNESDAY MASSES SLATED ALL DAY AT UD

"Remember that you are dust and to dust you will return."

University of Dayton faculty, staff and students will celebrate the beginning of Lent, the period of contemplation that leads to the resurrection of Jesus on Easter, by attending one of six Ash Wednesday Masses to be celebrated on campus Wednesday, March 8. Masses will be celebrated in the Immaculate Conception chapel at:

- 10 a.m. with the Rev. Jim Heft, S.M.
- 12:05 p.m. with the Rev. Gerald Chinchar, S.M.
- 4:30 p.m. with the Rev. Chris Conlon, S.M.
- 8 p.m. with the Rev. Joe Lackner, S.M.
- 10 p.m. with the Rev. Jim Fitz, S.M.

The Rev. Ken Templin, S.M., will celebrate Mass at 9 p.m. in the McGinnis Center, 301 Lowes St.

About 15 minutes into the Mass, the priest will distribute the ashes by coating the end of his thumb and making a small sign of the cross on each person's forehead, reciting the phrase listed above.

A new feature on campus this year is a small booklet of prayers and artwork that has been compiled by the campus ministry office. Students, faculty, staff and one graduate of the University contributed to the booklet, which will be given out at the Masses and at the prayer services that will be held in residence halls on campus.

For more information, call the campus ministry office at (937) 229-3339.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8: HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR TO SPEAK AT UD

Maurray Ebner, a Columbus resident who survived the Holocaust during World War II, will speak about his experiences at the University of Dayton at 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 8, in the Sears Recital Hall in the Jesse Philips Humanities Center on campus.

Ebner is a native of Poland who was confined in several camps, including Auschwitz.

His address at UD is sponsored by the religious studies department. For more information, call religious studies at (937) 229-4321.
