

GET TO KNOW US

WE CAN DO MORE FOR YOU.

eCommons, a new service offered by University Libraries, is a space for content produced by our diverse campus community. It is a permanent multimedia archive of UD's continuous pursuit of transformative education and world-changing research.

LEARN MORE ABOUT ECOMMONS AT THESE OPEN INFORMATIONAL SESSIONS

TUESDAY, OCT. 29, 2013 IN KENNEDY UNION, ROOM 310

10 – 11 a.m. Introduction to Institutional Repositories, Open Access and Digital Commons

A brief intro to open access as a movement, the history/development of institutional repositories, author rights and copyright and the basic values/functionality of Digital Commons. Time for questions included.

11 – 11:30 a.m. Introduction to eCommons

Dean Kathy Webb will provide a brief overview of the eCommons at UD.

11:30 – 11:45 a.m. Break

11:45 a.m. – 1 p.m. Examples of innovative projects at other institutions

The repository as a service: developing robust, relevant collections with campus partners. This session covers types of collections, examples, and through individual stories, highlights the collaborative, service-oriented nature of the work. Time for questions and brainstorming included.

ARE YOU AN EDITOR OR INTERESTED IN STARTING A JOURNAL? OR, ARE YOU A CONFERENCE ORGANIZER?

Attend a special session on journal and conference/event services through eCommons.

Wednesday, Oct. 30, 2013 from 10 to 11:30 a.m.
Roesch Library room 205

Journals and Conferences in eCommons

- Examples of journals and conferences in Digital Commons
- What to consider before getting started
- Getting a new journal or conference set up: what's the process?
- Looking at the peer-review workflow on the back end

For this session, please RSVP to Cheri Harrington in the Dean's office at 229-4094.

For more information visit ecommons.udayton.edu or email ecommons@udayton.edu