2010

The River of Ruin (medium voice and piano)

Gary Bachlund

Follow this and additional works at: http://ecommons.udayton.edu/dunbar

Recommended Citation
http://ecommons.udayton.edu/dunbar/39
Paul Laurence Dunbar (1872-1906)

The River Of Ruin

Copyright © 2010 Gary Bachlund  All international rights reserved.  www.bachlund.org
The River Of Ruin

[Staff notation]

23

[Staff notation]

dream by the side of the stream, as long as the river runs... as

[Staff notation]

28

[Staff notation]

long as the river runs...

[Staff notation]

34

[Staff notation]

It dream of no night-brooding cares. ...no night-brooding cares...

[Staff notation]

39

[Staff notation]

The women all wear garlanded tresses, the men all have rings on their hands, and they sing in their glee, for they think they are free, those that know not the treacherous sands.

Ah, but this be a venture-some journey, for ever those sands are a-shrift, and a step to one side means a grasp of the tide, and the current is fearful and swift.

...and the current is fearful and swift.

For once in the river of ruin, what boots it to do or to dare, for down we must go in the turbulent flow, to the desolate Sea of Despair.