

Marian Thoughts of Pope Francis

April 2017

April 2 – ‘May the Risen Lord Sustain You’ (Pope Speaks to Mirandola’s People, Earthquake Victims’ Relatives) –Translated conclusion (April 2, 2017, Zenit.org).

May the Virgin Maria and your patron saints obtain from the Lord strength for your people; giving light and strength to the minds and hearts

April 2 – Angelus in Carpi (Pastoral visit) –Translated conclusion (April 2, 2017, Vatican.va).

At the end of this celebration, may our thoughts turn to the Blessed Virgin, whom you venerate in the Cathedral Church dedicated to her. Let us offer to Mary our joys, our sorrows and our hopes. Let us ask her to fix her merciful gaze upon those among us who are suffering, particularly upon the sick, the poor, and those who lack dignified work.

April 3 – Pope: Priestly Formation Has 4 Columns, Which If Not Present and Interacting, ‘Limps,’ Becomes ‘Paralyzed’ –Translated conclusion (April 3, 2017, Zenit.org).

Dear Superiors, schoolboys and former students of this Spanish College of Saint Joseph: let us entrust to the Holy Patriarch, Protector of the Church, your worries and plans, may he accompany you, together with Mary Most Holy, invoked by the College’s tradition as Most Clement Mother, so that you can grow in wisdom and grace, and be beloved disciples of the Good Shepherd.

April 3 – Morning Meditation in the Chapel of the Domus sanctae Marthae: Corruption and Mercy –Translated extract (April 3, 2017, Vatican.va).

“Jesus, the completely innocent man, can say ‘mother’ to the innocent because his mother is the only innocent woman”.

April 4 – Pope’s Address to Vatican Conference on 50th Anniversary of “Populorum Progressio” –Translated conclusion (April 4, 2017, Zenit.org).

May He bless you and our Lady protect you.

April 9 – Angelus –Translated conclusion (April 9, 2017, Vatican.va).

To Christ, who today enters into the Passion, and to the Blessed Virgin, let us entrust the victims of the terrorist attack which occurred last Friday in Stockholm, as well as the many who remain severely exhausted by war, the disgrace of the world.

April 10 – Pope’s Words During Prayer Vigil for 32nd World Youth Day –Translated extract (April 10, 2017, Zenit.org).

We have heard the Gospel (cf. Luke 1:39-45). When Mary receives that gift, that very great vocation to bring God’s gift to us, the Gospel says that, having also heard the news that her elderly cousin was expecting a child and was in need of help, she went “in haste,”— in haste!

April 13 – Homily of His Holiness at Chrism Mass –Translated extract (April 13, 2017, Vatican.va).

A first icon of the good news would be the stone water jars at the wedding feast of Cana (cf. Jn 2:6). In one way, they clearly reflect that perfect vessel which is Our Lady herself, the Virgin Mary.

April 14 – Prayer for Young People in View of the Forthcoming Synod of Bishops 2018 –Translated extract (April 14, 2017, Vatican.va).

Like the Beloved Disciple, may they stand at the foot of the Cross, to receive your Mother as a gift from you.

April 17 – Pope’s Regina Caeli Address on Easter Monday –Translated conclusion (April 17, 2017, Vatican.va).

May the Virgin Mary, silent witness of the Death and Resurrection of her Son Jesus, help us to be living signs of the Risen Christ amid the events of the world, so that all those who are in tribulation and difficulties do not remain victims of pessimism and defeat, of resignation, but find in us many brothers and sisters that offer them support and consolation.
