“If you can become the leader you ought to be on the inside, you will be able to become the leader you want to be on the outside. People will want to follow you. And when that happens, you'll be able to tackle anything in this world.“

John C. Maxwell
Becoming an effective leader is a vibrant combination of spiritual/personal formation and leadership skills.
Skills alone $\neq$ Leadership

Formation alone $\neq$ Leadership

Skills + Formation $=\ $Leadership for Successful Catholic Schools
In the Catholic school, we are talking about those who successfully exhibit 3 essential leadership dimensions:

• Spiritual Leadership
• Educational Leadership
• Organizational Leadership
Be the change you wish to see in the world

A quick look back...

Catholic schools founded on faith of men and women spiritually formed and living in religious community - vowed religious

Increasingly in the hands of lay persons who reflect a wide variety of backgrounds and experiences
• motivation
• satisfaction
• efficacy

Important that Catholic school leaders develop minds and hearts that reflect the ultimate purpose of Catholic schools
“Too much attention is paid to the skills of a teacher and not enough to forming the heart of the Christian school teacher.”

Blessed William Joseph Chaminade, 1824
“The preparation and ongoing formation of administrators and teachers is vital if our schools are to remain truly Catholic in all aspects of school life...the formation of personnel will allow the Gospel message and the living presence of Jesus to permeate the entire life of the school community.”

United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, 2005
