NEWS RELEASE

DAYTON COUNCIL ON WORLD AFFAIRS GETS FUNDS
 FOR INDIAN INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL IN 2002

DAYTON, Ohio — The Dayton Council on World Affairs has received a $1,000 planning grant from the Ohio Arts Council to support planning activities for an international film festival featuring the films of India. The festival is planned for February 2002.

The council, with headquarters on the University of Dayton campus, is working collaboratively with the India Foundation to develop a program plan for the film festival. The OAC grant provides funds for technical support, including assessing the feasibility of the project and a program plan for the film festival concept.
