Start by doing what’s necessary; then do what’s possible; and suddenly you are doing the impossible.
—St. Francis of Assisi

For More Information:
Liberty Hall
300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-0408
937.229.3339

udaytoncampusministry
udcampusministry

Quote
Of the Week

“...Especially to a Young Adult? For me, they mean freedom. I live in a world where freedom to choose is held in high regard and I get to daily choose to give up certain things in order to be more free. Three years ago I promised to God and vowed to observe chastity, poverty, and obedience. I like to refer to these Evangelical Counsels (or vows) as “No Honey, No Money and No Funny” to get the intended chuckle, but am very aware that these phrases say “No” but really are more of a “Yes.” I get to say, “yes,” like Mary, who acclaimed the greatness of the Lord. By my yes, I am supported by these vows which help me remember that God is the source of my life’s vocation—not greed, lust, individualism or many other things that tempt me.

College is a time for exploration; I pray that you take time to explore God’s call in your life. Apply for grad school, interview for jobs and go to career fairs, but also attend events that look at a year of service beyond UD, attend Vocation Conferences hosted by your peers (on 11/12), and go to dinners that talk about what it means to be poor, chaste, obedient and stable (on 11/3). Your education is a gift, use it to find your vocation and transform the world. Be free. Be you. Be the person God is calling you to be.”

Bro. Mark Motz, SM
GA for Residence Life Ministry in Founders Hall

Sunday Worship Times
Masses
10am IC Chapel
Noon IC Chapel
6pm IC Chapel
8pm IC Chapel
9pm McGinnis Center
Interdenominational Worship Service
6pm Marianist Hall Chapel
Holy Angels Parish Masses
6pm Sunday
9:30am Sunday
Noon Sunday

Weekday Mass Schedule
Monday-Friday 12:30pm IC Chapel
Monday 9:30pm 1903 Trinity Ave.
Tuesday 9pm Stuart Chapel
Wednesday 9pm Manystreet Chapel
Thursday 9pm Marianist Hall Chapel

Sacrament of Reconciliation
Tuesday and Friday 11:00am-Noon IC Chapel
Wednesday 4:30-5:30pm IC Chapel

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament
Alumni Hall
Tues & Thurs: 6:30pm-9pm
Fri: 1pm-4pm

Morning Prayer/Lauds
Mondays, 8-8:25am, Chapel of the Immaculate Conception

Rosary
Immaculate Conception Chapel
Every single night, at 10pm.
All are welcome!

For More Information:
Liberty Hall
300 College Park
Dayton, OH 45469-0408
937.229.3339

udaytoncampusministry
udcampusministry

Sunday Readings
Reading I: Wisdom 11:12-12:2
Responsorial Psalm: Ps. 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14
Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.
2 Thessalonians 1:11

All Saints Day Masses—November 1
8am, 12:30pm, and 8pm in the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception

All Souls Day—November 2
12:30pm Bi-lingual Mass followed by pan dulce in celebration of Dia de los Muertos

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: El Puente tutors and mentors elementary and high school age Latino students in Dayton.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: El Puente tutors and mentors elementary and high school age Latino students in Dayton.

What do those words even mean...Especially to a Young Adult? For me, they mean freedom. I live in a world where freedom to choose is held in high regard and I get to daily choose to give up certain things in order to be more free. Three years ago I promised to God and vowed to observe chastity, poverty, and obedience. I like to refer to these Evangelical Counsels (or vows) as “No Honey, No Money and No Funny” to get the intended chuckle, but am very aware that these phrases say “No” but really are more of a “Yes.” I get to say, “yes,” like Mary, who acclaimed the greatness of the Lord. By my yes, I am supported by these vows which help me remember that God is the source of my life’s vocation—not greed, lust, individualism or many other things that tempt me.

College is a time for exploration; I pray that you take time to explore God’s call in your life. Apply for grad school, interview for jobs and go to career fairs, but also attend events that look at a year of service beyond UD, attend Vocation Conferences hosted by your peers (on 11/12), and go to dinners that talk about what it means to be poor, chaste, obedient and stable (on 11/3). Your education is a gift, use it to find your vocation and transform the world. Be free. Be you. Be the person God is calling you to be.

Bro. Mark Motz, SM
GA for Residence Life Ministry in Founders Hall

Sunday Readings
Reading I: Wisdom 11:12-12:2
Responsorial Psalm: Ps. 145:1-2, 8-11, 13-14
Reading II: 2 Thessalonians 1:11-2:2

We always pray for you, that our God may make you worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith.
2 Thessalonians 1:11

All Saints Day Masses—November 1
8am, 12:30pm, and 8pm in the Chapel of the Immaculate Conception

All Souls Day—November 2
12:30pm Bi-lingual Mass followed by pan dulce in celebration of Dia de los Muertos

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: El Puente tutors and mentors elementary and high school age Latino students in Dayton.
Campus Ministry Calendar

November
1 All Saints Day
2 All Souls Day
7 Film: A Place at the Table
9 Remembering Kristallnacht
12 The Art of Being

Metamorphosis Sophomore Retreat
Nov. 11-13, Maria Stein Retreat Center
Sophomores, come reflect on relationships, faith and life changes. The retreat offers tools in the area of self and group reflection, discernment, and an individual’s spirituality and prayer life. This retreat focuses on the perplexing questions of “Who am I?” “Who am I becoming?” “Who am I called to be?” In the words of Frederick Buechner, on vocation, discernment, and the quest for one’s calling: looking for “where your greatest gifts meet the world’s greatest needs.” Cost is $50. Register now at tinyurl.com/udretreats. PATH eligible.

SERVICE Saturdays
Volunteer with other UD students to meet the needs of our Dayton community. Join the Center for Social Concern for service projects on Saturdays, November 5 and 12. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc for more details and to register.

Remembering Kristallnacht
“The Night of Broken Glass”
Wed., Nov. 9, 5pm, Immaculate Conception Chapel
A candlelight ceremony in memory of the day the Nazis unleashed a wave of riots against Jewish people, destroying synagogues, businesses and homes and transporting them to the concentration camps. The ceremony includes a family testimony and a musical remembrance by UD’s World Music choir.

The Art of Being: What Does Vocation Really Mean?
Saturday, November 12, 1-6pm, Humanities Bldg.
The Art of Being introduces participants to the concept of vocation by expanding the traditional understanding to include the many diverse roles vocation plays in each of our lives. 4pm keynote by Sean-Patrick Lovett. Register on orgsync by November 1.

Criminal Justice Plunge
Saturday, December 3, 9am-5pm
Participants will experience a wide range of challenges and social justice issues that people who are or have been incarcerated experience. The day will include presentations, site visits, as well as a documentary screening in order to dive deeper into understanding life in the criminal justice system. Cost is $15. Registration on-line at the Center for Social Concern website.

Hunger and Homelessness Awareness Month
The Thanksgiving Food Basket Drive Is ON!
Your generosity is once again needed to help provide families in our Dayton community with a Thanksgiving dinner. If your floor, club or department wants to put together a basket please contact the Center for Social Concern, 229-2524.

Film Screening: A Place at the Table, Monday, Nov. 7, 7-8:30pm, ArtStreet Studio B
A Place at the Table is a documentary that sheds light on food access issues, hunger, homelessness, and the unjust structures that perpetuate poverty and hunger. Stick around afterwards for discussion and reflection with a representative from Homefull, an organization working to find services, solutions, and innovations for people experiencing hunger and homelessness.

Dinner Dialogue with Hanley Sustainability Institute, Thursday, Nov. 10, time TBD, KU Ballroom
Participate in a panel discussion with people who work in hunger and homelessness throughout the Dayton area. Discussion will focus on achieving food justice and environmental sustainability.

SERVICE Saturday, Saturday, Nov. 12, 9am-12pm
Join us for a morning of service, sorting and organizing donations for the Thanksgiving Food Drive. This service will be on campus, but will benefit families throughout the Dayton region.

Table of Plenty, Tuesday, Nov. 15, 12:30-1:45pm, Liberty Hall 08
Join us for this month’s lunch discussion related to issues of Hunger and Homelessness. Lunch will be provided by the Center for Social Concern staff. RSVP on the Center for Social Concern’s website. PATH eligible.

Homelessness Plunge/Sleep Out, Thursday, Nov. 17, 7pm-8am, 33 W. First St. #100 Dayton OH 45402
In partnership with Homefull, a local agency that works to provide services, solutions, and innovations for people experiencing hunger and homelessness. This experience will start with a film screening and discussion of the movie Tiny, followed by a sleep-out in Dayton. This experience is designed to get a small snapshot of what it is like for a person experiencing homelessness on a daily basis. Please RSVP on the Center for Social Concern’s website.

Mission of Mary Farm Service Day, Saturday, Nov. 19, 9am-12pm
A day of service with local urban farm, Mission of Mary Cooperative. RSVP on the Center for Social Concern website.

Mass and Candlelight prayer service, Monday, Nov. 21, 9pm, 1903 Trinity Marianist Student Community
Start your Thanksgiving break off right with Mass and a Candlelight prayer service dedicated to Hunger and Homelessness.

Women’s Discernment Group
October 30, Nov. 4, 11, 7-8:30pm, Liberty Hall RM 01
Join us in the opportunity to discuss our discernment journeys and to reflect on our vocations as women. We will take time for prayer, open discussion, and deeper understanding regarding discernment and vocation for women of faith. This group is open to all women on campus who are interested in deepening her understanding of discernment and the various vocations for Christian women.

For more details and applications on all of the above, go to www.udayton.edu/ministry or call Campus Ministry at 937-229-3339 or the Center for Social Concern at 937-229-2524.