Always Full Bore

University of Dayton

Follow this and additional works at: https://ecommons.udayton.edu/news_rls

Recommended Citation

Always Full Bore

A rough, tough Flyer football standout who found life after graduation wasn't satisfying took what might be a surprising turn into a life of faith and service.

Rich Schuckman '98, a member of the last football team at the University to go undefeated, is just a few years away from becoming a Catholic priest. He talked to writer Tom Archdeacon of the Dayton Daily News about his journey and trading a helmet for a clerical collar. To read the story, visit "Former UD football player works to become a priest".

LATEST NEWS

Briefly Speaking

Black History Month, business leadership, Marian art among upcoming University of Dayton events.

On The Academic Minute

Assistant sociology professor Ruth Thompson-Miller was featured on the popular radio program, The Academic Minute, explaining the lasting effects of Jim Crow laws.

Colleges That Pay You Back

The Princeton Review named the University of Dayton among the top “Colleges That Pay You Back” in a new book that examines academics, affordability and graduates’ career prospects.