Quote Of the Week

“For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the Lord, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.”

Jeremiah 29:11

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: International Charity Association serves in the community in a variety of ways.

Called to the Common Good: Lobby with the Bishops
The US Conference of Catholic Bishops is asking Catholics to lobby their local Senators and House members on three or four issues of great importance when they are back from the Congressional Recess Feb. 20-24. We need members of the UD community to come and speak out on these social justice issues. There will be a webinar on Tuesday, Feb. 7 at 2pm in Liberty Hall, RM 08 with details on the issues. Questions? Contact ncardillino1@udayton.edu.

SERVICE Saturdays
Volunteer with other UD students to meet the needs of our Dayton community. Join the Center for Social Concern for service projects on Saturday, February 18, March 25, April 8 and 22. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc for more details and to register.

Mandarin/English Bilingual Mass
Wednesday, February 15, 9:00pm, Marycrest Hall Chapel
All are welcome to celebrate Mass with readings in Mandarin and English. Fr. Anthony and Fr. John from China will concelebrate at this liturgy.

Table of Plenty—Tuesday, February 21, 12:30-1:45pm, Liberty Hall, Room 08
Join us for our Table of Plenty to discuss “Pipelines: Climate, Consumption and Culture”. The Table of Plenty is a monthly opportunity for open lunchtime discussion on a complex social justice topic. We hope to have people join us with a broad spectrum of opinions to join us for respectful conversation where all sides are heard. Free vegetarian lunch provided. PATH eligible. Register at: https://www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/advocacy/table_of_plenty.php

Interfaith Plunge: Exploring Issues of Food Insecurity, Poverty and Education
Saturday, February 18, 8:30am-4:30pm, Springfield, OH
Join us for a collaborative trip with Wittenberg University students in Springfield, Ohio to explore how faith intersects with issues of food insecurity, education and poverty. It will be a day of service and reflection that is open to UD participants of any or no faith or religious tradition. We will explore the city of Springfield and learn more about the agencies and faith communities working to make a difference for their community. Lunch and transportation included. Cost is $15 (scholarships are available). Space is limited to 10 UD students. Sign up at https://www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/plunges.php. Questions? Contact Julie at benedettoj1@udayton.edu or Bridget at bebbertl@udayton.edu.

Road Less Traveled Retreat
February 17-18 or February 24-25
Attention all first year students, come take the Road Less Traveled! This is a unique retreat experience as it is a retreat designed for first year students by other first year students. Enjoy a weekend of spiritual reflection centered in the ideas of Call, Discipleship, and Journey. Contact Bro. Tom Pieper at tpieperl@udayton.edu or Jennifer Morin-Williamson at morinwilliamsonj1@udayton.edu. Registration is also available on-line at http://tinyurl.com/UDRetreats.

Perspectives on Faith and Life Series: Explore Truth, Discover Beauty—Dinner and Discussion
Thursday, Feb. 23, 6:30-8:30 pm, VWK Main
The speaker is Bro. Dan Klco. The title is “Can Religion and Science be Friends?” The presentation will discuss some of the causes for the tension between science and religion that have developed historically and explore possibilities and perspectives to relieve these tensions and help bring about a more positive relationship between religion and science. The case of Galileo in the 1600s and the Theory of Evolution today will be used as examples. Due to the KU construction, our free dinner will be in VWK. The OrgSync account link to RSVP is https://orgsync.com/91978/events/1788252. Please share this link broadly with students and encourage them to RSVP. The event is worth a Housing PATH point!

Human Rights & The Catholic Intellectual Tradition: Listening to the Midwives of Sudan
Monday, Feb. 13, 5:00pm, Sears Recital Hall, Jesse Phillips Humanities Center
Dr. Meghan Clark explores the principles of solidarity and participation from Catholic Social Teaching in the context of the 4th Millennium Development Goal: Reducing Child Mortality. She discusses how these principles guide a partnership between an international NGO and local midwives in the Sudan. Dr. Clark is the author of “The Vision of Catholic Social Thought: The Virtue of Solidarity and the Praxis of Human Rights” and a contributor with Paul Farmer to the forthcoming book “From Aid to Accompaniment.”
