Beloved, let us love one another, for love is from God, and whoever loves has been born of God and knows God. Anyone who does not love does not know God, because God is love.

CATHOLIC LENT RETREAT

"Lent comes providentially to reawaken us, to shake us from our lethargy." -- Pope Francis

Lent always tends to sneak up on me and I remember that I have to give something up. I sometimes dread it coming to shake me out of my comfortable place. However, there is no Easter Sunday without a Good Friday. We need this period of reawakening in order to experience the fullness of the Resurrection; the life that we are meant to live! Sometimes it’s painful to wake up from the lethargy that Pope Francis talks about because it is so comfortable, but it’s always worth it. The joy that comes afterwards is indescribable. Pope St. John Paul II said, "We are the Easter people, and hallelujah is our song!" The season of Lent is a time of fasting and renewal; a time to shed the old scales in your spiritual life and be opened to the new skin beneath them in a time of feasting!

From March 10-12, you will have the opportunity to start your Lent off on the right foot by attending the Catholic Lent Retreat. Participate in opportunities for Reconciliation, Mass, Eucharistic Adoration, and daily prayer. Listen to talks and share in small groups. Fast from doubt, worry, and sin this Lent. Feast on love, trust, and hope.

Sign up today at tinyurl.com/udretreats! The cost is $40.

Table of Plenty—Tuesday, February 21
12:30-1:45pm, Liberty Hall, Room 08
Join us for our Table of Plenty to discuss “PipeLines: Climate, Consumption and Culture”. The Table of Plenty is a monthly opportunity for open lunchtime discussion on a complex social justice topic. We hope to have people with a broad spectrum of opinions to join us for respectful conversation where all sides are heard. Free vegetarian lunch provided. Register at: https://www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/advocacy/table_of_plenty.php.

Student Government Association
Interested in helping out with Marianist Involvement on campus? SGA is having elections soon and you can run to be the next Director of Marianist Involvement! There will be information sessions on the 20th and 21st of February to obtain more information regarding elections! Please contact Bree Richards (SGA VP) at richardsh4@udayton.edu for more details.

REAL Dayton
Passionate about the city of Dayton? Consider applying to be a REAL Dayton Leader! Applications are now open; to apply contact skennedy2@udayton.edu! You did not have to attend any prior REAL Dayton BreakOuts in order to apply. Applications are due by March 1, 2017.

Register Now for May BreakOuts
Registration is now open for our May BreakOuts! The Center for Social Concern is sponsoring two exciting trips this May. From May 6-13 you can help out with housing recovery from both Hurricane Katrina and the recent tornadoes in New Orleans through the Duchesne House and Project Homecoming. Or, from May 8-13, you can learn about the joys and struggles of the Civil Rights Movement as you travel to key locations on the Civil Rights Tour. For more information and to register, please see our website or contact Mary Niebler at mniebler1@udayton.edu. Please sign up by March 1st!

Marianist Women’s Collaborative
Wednesdays, 8:15-9:00am, Alumni Hall, Room 206
The Marianist Women’s Collaborative is starting “Walking with Women”, a female faculty, student and staff faith-sharing group! We will be “walking” with our women founders by exploring their lives through brief readings while also reflecting and sharing about our own!

For more details and applications on all of the above, go to www.udayton.edu/ministry or call Campus Ministry at 937-229-3339 or the Center for Social Concern at 937-229-2824.

Busy Person’s Retreat
Want to spend more time in prayer this Lent but don’t have a lot of time? Consider doing the busy person’s “retreat” where you will meet once a week for 30 minutes with a spiritual companion beginning the week of Mar. 7 until the week of Apr. 7. A resource with reflections will help guide your meeting. A kick-off Mardi Gras lunch is on Mon. Feb. 27, 12:30-1:30pm. Open to UD students, staff and faculty. Sign up at tinyurl.com/UDbusypersons. Space is limited! Questions? Contact Kathy Sales (ksales1@udayton.edu) or Jessica Peek (peekj1@udayton.edu).

Road Less Traveled Retreat, February 24-25
Attention all first year students, come take the Road Less Traveled! This is a unique retreat experience designed for first year students by other first year students. Enjoy a weekend of spiritual reflection centered in the ideas of Call, Discipleship, and Journey. Contact Bro. Tom Pieper at tpieper1@udayton.edu or Jennifer Morin-Williamson at morinwilliamson1@udayton.edu. Register on-line at http://tinyurl.com/UDRetreats.

Perspectives on Faith and Life Series: Explore Truth, Discover Beauty—Dinner and Discussion
Thursday, Feb. 23, 6:30-8:30 pm, VWK Main
The speaker is Bro. Dan Klco. The title is “Can Religion and Science be Friends?” The presentation will discuss some of the causes for the tension between science and religion that have developed historically and explore possibilities and perspectives to relieve these tensions and help bring about a more positive relationship between religion and science. The case of Galileo in the 1600s and the Theory of Evolution today will be used as examples. Due to the KU construction, our free dinner will be in VWK. RSVP at https://orgsync.com/91978/events/1788252. The event is worth a Housing PATH point!

Immigration Plunge
March 11, 9am-4pm, ArtStreet Studio C
Immigration and Refugee Resettlement has been a controversial topic recently, but how do these issues affect our local community? This day-long experience will take you through simulations, presentations, and out into the city of Dayton to dive deeper into issues surrounding immigration. If you have questions, please contact Meaghan Crowley in the Center for Social Concern at crowleym1@udayton.edu. Sign up on-line.
