I first encountered this simple prayer in a book that I received as a gift for my First Communion. The simplicity of this little prayer rings in my head and heart each time I see the moon. While as a child, I might look into darkness and fear the night; God sees the moon and sends its light to bless and guide me. Both the prayer and the readings today are powerful reminders that God sees all and often God sees differently than I see. Take the readings of the day, for instance:

I see a simple day laborer. God sees wisdom in waiting. I see inexperience. God sees potential. I see others’ sinfulness. God sees their woundedness. I see mud. God sees an agent for cleansing.

This makes me wonder about how I see the world versus how God sees.

I see hard choices and tough discernment.
I see a world torn apart by division.
God sees common ground waiting to be found.
I see lies. God sees truths that need to be told.

Take a moment each day this week to ask yourself these two questions: What did I see today? What does God see?

To See As God Sees

“I see the moon
The moon sees me
God bless the moon
And God bless me.”

Featured Marianist Mission

Another recipient of money collected for Marianists abroad this Lent will be Marianist Sisters’ Health Clinics in Kpatchile, Togo, West Africa and Singhpur, Jharkhand, India. Part of its mission is to provide maternity and well-baby care for people who previously had no medical assistance. The Sisters need help raising Sr. Ann Martine’s salary and that of the other medical personnel who serve the rural poor. Consider donating at www.marianist.com/udgives, in select locations around campus, candle donations in the Immaculate Conception Chapel or at all Masses on March 26th.

A local charity which serves the poor in the Dayton area will receive 10% of every Sunday collection. The rest of the collection supports more than 100 Campus Ministry programs of all kinds, including our Service Program of the Week: Prison Action Group for Education and Services (PAGES) tutors inmates working toward their GED in the local county jail.

This makes me wonder about how I see the world versus how God sees.

I see hard choices and tough discernment. God sees opportunity. I see a world torn apart by division. God sees common ground waiting to be found. I see lies. God sees truths that need to be told.

Take a moment each day this week to ask yourself these two questions:

What did I see today? What does God see?

Voices of the Immigrant Experience
Tuesday, April 11, 5:30-7:30pm, KU Torch Lounge
Come hear local immigrants’ stories and learn about their immigration experience from around the world to Dayton!
Co-hosted by the University of Dayton’s International Studies Program, Department of Sociology, Anthropology, and Social Work, Human Rights Center, Center for International Students, English Department, Campus Ministry’s Center for Social Concern and the Office of Experiential Learning. For additional information call 937-333-1413 or contact Melissa.Bertolo@daytonohio.gov.

Stations of the Cross—Fridays, March 10-April 7, 3:30pm, Chapel of the Immaculate Conception
All are welcome to pray the Stations of the Cross, an ancient prayer practice remembering the Passion of Christ. We will walk the 14 Stations in the Chapel each Friday using the “Stations of Mercy with Pope Francis”.

Men’s Coffee Talk
Friday, April 7, 12:15pm, McGinnis 102
Come and join a group of guys who get together to talk about life as a young adult and where our faith fits in it. We strive for solidarity and accountability. Fruit, donuts, and other breakfast items provided.

Register Now for May BreakOuts
The Center for Social Concern is sponsoring two exciting trips this May. From May 6-13 you can help out with housing recovery from both Hurricane Katrina and the recent tornadoes in New Orleans through the Duchesne House and Project Homecoming. Or, from May 8-13, you can learn about the joys and struggles of the Civil Rights Movement as you travel to key locations on the Civil Rights Tour. For more information and to register, see our website or contact Mary Niebler at mniebler1@udayton.edu.

Lenten Simple Meal
Friday, March 31, 6pm, Liberty Hall, Room 08
Encounter Christ through a free simple meal featuring recipes from around the world while participating in a Lenten reflection. Sponsored by Catholic Relief Services and Campus Ministry.

Table of Plenty—Tuesday, March 28, 12:30-1:45pm, Liberty Hall, Room 08
Join us for our Table of Plenty to discuss “#Truth?”. We will cover questions about the media and discerning truth in order to bring about social justice. The Table of Plenty is a monthly opportunity for open lunchtime discussion on a complex social justice topic. We hope to have people with a broad spectrum of opinions to join us for respectful conversation where all sides are heard. Free vegetarian lunch provided. Register at: https://www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc/advocacy/table_of_plenty.php.

Immigration Attitudes & Enforcement In the Contemporary Age, Monday, March 27, 7pm, KU Torch Lounge
All are invited to join us as Dr. Benjamin Knoll, the John Marshall Harlan Associate Professor of Politics at Centre College, delivers the annual Pi Alpha Alpha address. Dr. Knoll is a widely-published political scientist with expertise in public opinion and voting behavior, especially attitudes involving racial, national, and religious minority groups within society.
Sponsored by the MPA Program & the Political Science Department. Contact Joshua Ambrosius at jambrados1@udayton.edu for more information.

Taizé Prayer and Reconciliation Service
Wednesday, March 29, 8pm, Immaculate Conception Chapel
All are welcome to attend this prayerful Lenten service, which includes music in the style of the monks of Taizé, France with the opportunity for the sacrament of individual reconciliation with one of several Marianist priests.

Pause That Refreshes Bible Study
Wednesdays, 11:30am-12:30pm, McGinnis 101
Join Student Neighborhood Campus Ministry for a weekly bible study meant to be a break from our busy lives that refreshes us through prayerful study of the Bible.

Marianist Women’s Collaborative
Wednesdays, 8:15-9:00am, Alumni Hall, Room 206
The Marianist Women’s Collaborative is starting “Walking with Women”, a female faculty, student and staff faith-sharing group! We will be ‘walking’ with our women founders by exploring their lives through brief readings while also reflecting and sharing about our own!

SERVICE Saturdays
Volunteer with other UD students to meet the needs of our Dayton community. Join the Center for Social Concern for service projects on Saturday, April 8 and 22. Visit www.udayton.edu/ministry/csc for more details and to register.

Spring Co-Ed Wilderness Retreat, April 21-23
Go take a hike! Discover yourself, God and new friends as the team leads you through the stunning beauty of Red River Gorge, Kentucky. Hiking by day and sleeping under the stars at night; experience a weekend of prayer and simplicity. Register at tinyurl.com/udretreats.
