The United Nations Assistance Mission in Afghanistan (UNAMA) is a political mission established by the Security Council in 2002 at the request of the Government to assist it and the people of Afghanistan in laying the foundations for sustainable peace and development in the country.

UNAMA Mission:

- Aiding reconstruction;
- Fighting corruption;
- Monitoring and coordinating efforts to protect citizens and their human rights, especially those of women and children;
- Providing humanitarian and development assistance;
- Advising and assisting the government with security, governance, and regional cooperation.
