A Big Band Sound

09.19.2011 | Campus and Community, Fine Arts

The University of Dayton New Horizons Jazz Band has named Big Band specialist Tom Daugherty Pfrogner as musical director.

Pfrogner, a professional trombonist, has more than 30 years experience as a high school band director. He has written more than 800 musical transcriptions and arrangements, specializing in Big Band music. Pfrogner has arranged music for many bands throughout the U.S. and Europe, including The Air Force Band of Flight, The Sinatra Tribute Show and The Tommy Dorsey

Orchestra.

The New Horizons Band offers adults 50 and over the opportunity to begin a musical instrument, or to re-connect with music for those who have been away from active music making for many years. The New Horizons concert band and jazz band perform throughout the community.

Registration is open from August through May.
